The 1st Commandment: Advent Forever

I am the LORD your God... You shall have no other gods beside me.

Exodus 20:2-3 EHV

In many ways, our recent Advent theme of God's "advents" has a direct connection to both the 1st Commandment we've just studied in class and the opportunity presented with the turn of the calendar.

As we reflect upon having no other gods besides, Yahweh, the One true Creator God who walked among us as Jesus our Immanuel, we are reminded of God's gracious efforts to come to his people again and again to rescue and to save. The Old Testament records many such events and he continues to do so in our lives as well through his Word and Sacraments.

The obvious conclusion is that we want to be diligent in making a habit of receiving those "Means of Grace" that he uses to strengthen our faith and be with us. We want to remember our baptisms each morning to orient ourselves as God's people and prepare for a day of faithful living. We want to receive the Lord's Supper regularly to be nourished and strengthened in faith through his forgiving gift. We want to be in his Word and growing in our knowledge of those Holy Scriptures daily.

As 2022 begins, remember your baptism, come to the Supper, and consider again a devotional plan for the New Year. Portals of Prayer booklets are available at church or an app is available for Apple or Android. Other options include:

Daily Light on the Daily Path: <https://dailylightdevotional.org> Also available as an Apple & Android app which provides a daily quote and daily prayers.

Bible Gateway has numerous reading plans: Bible Gateway - Reading Plans

Apps like YouVersion and others provide reading plans.

And, for those who repeatedly fail at completing annual reading plans, here's a Cliff Notes Reading Plan that hits the highlights and has built-in make-up days.

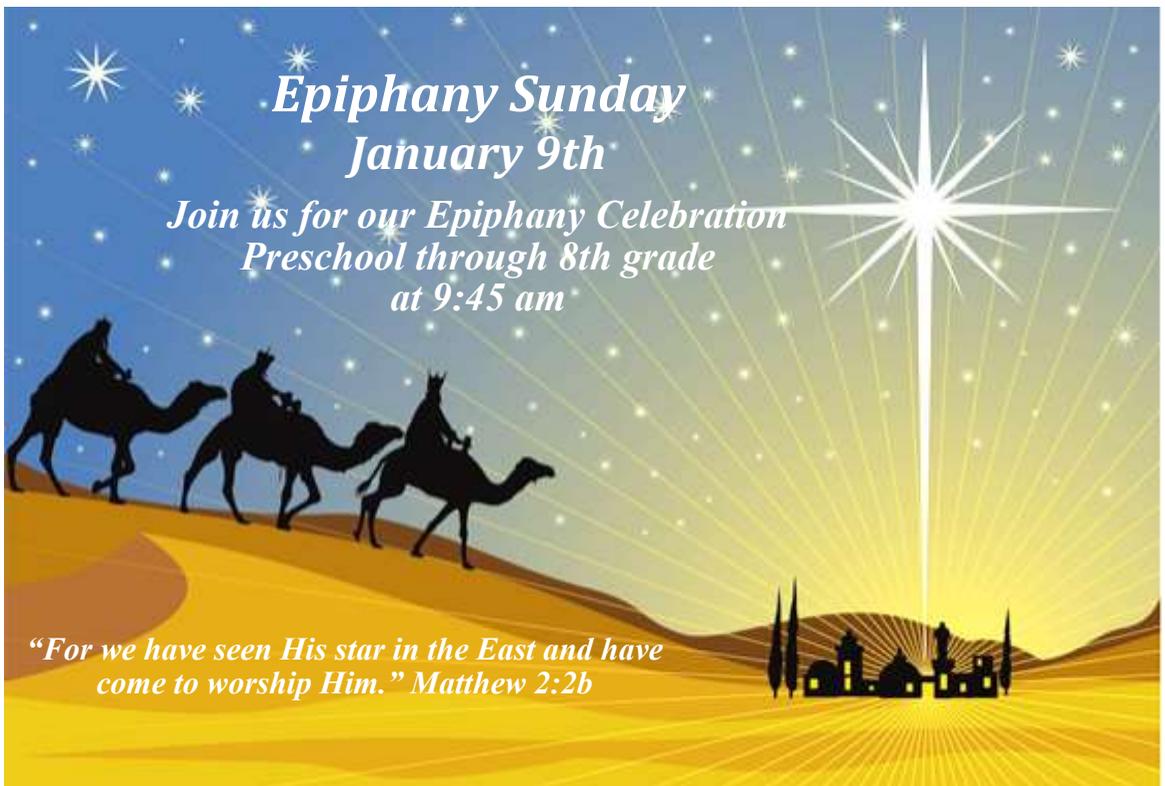

May your New Year be a year of unending advents as our God and Savior Jesus Christ comes to you in his Holy Word.

We are proclaiming what we have seen and heard also to you, so that you may have fellowship with us. Our fellowship is with the Father and his Son Jesus Christ. 1 John 1:3 EHV

Christmas Thank Yous

Thank you to all the saints at ESLC who have provided a multitude of Christmas cards, treats, and gifts. They are all greatly appreciated and if we have overlooked a particular thank you, please accept this as our response of gratitude! ~Pastor David & Judy Hammer and Family

Welcome our Newest Members

Meet the Johnsonwalls

Raised Mormon, Joe began to have doubts about their theology as he approached his Mission and ensuing college days. He attended Clemson where he met "Niki", after which both went to the military's Medical School at Bethesda MD (he in Pediatrics, she in Internal Medicine). Three of their five children were born during their assignment in Japan, one in Florida and another in Germany. Niki left the Air Force to become a Homeschool Mom while doing part-time as a Hospitalist. Though Joe enjoyed medicine, his real passion remains in computer science & programming, which he was able to combine for the military. Researching and studying Mormonism, the Lord led him to a better Biblical understanding of faith and grace. In Germany they felt ready to embrace true Christianity so asked the Mormon church to remove their names from the church registry. They were baptized at a Baptist church in Germany. After numerous moves and leaving the military, they relocated to where they first met. Visiting several area churches and holding Conservative beliefs they decided to also try the church one of their homeschool parents pastored. Eternal Shepherd has Biblical teachings, solid outreach, a normally active choir, and people are welcoming; they found ES a good fit! Joe is now full-time homeschool Dad and Niki has returned to medical training in Augusta to become a nephrologist, and will return to Seneca in Aug 2022.

Welcome J Family!

New Year – Eternal Message

When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars, which you have set in place, what is man that you are mindful of him, and the son of man that you care for him? ~Psalm 8:3-4

In the midst of praising and glorifying God for His mighty and awesome deeds/Creation, David breaks in and asks, “what is man that you are mindful of him, and the son of man that you care for him?” It is as if humanity and all its woes and troubles are insignificant and unimportant when placed side-by-side to the majesty of the heavens and the wonders of the created world. What, in all of history, could make Man worthy of the care and attention of the all-mighty, all-powerful, all-knowing Creator God? Easy answer? Nothing.

From the time the parents of humanity, Adam and Eve, sinned that first sin, God had every right to refuse mankind and eternally turn His back on them. The holy and righteous maker of the sun and moon, the heavens and the earth, the fishes, birds, and animals, the One who orders all time and seasons could have rejected this now fallen and sinful humanity. Holiness does not mix with unholiness. Mankind was seemingly cut off forever from their Creator, never again to walk and live with Him. Darkness was creeping, awaiting its rule and reign.

Not so fast, calls our God. For just as Adam and Eve’s sin broke the back of creation and forged a seemingly unrepairable gulf between Man and God, the Lord spoke the first word of Gospel, a promise of a Savior that would repair that gulf and would, in turn, break the back of sin, death, and the devil forever. Through Jesus Christ’s death and resurrection, never again could mankind be separated from our Creator. While we still fumble our way through this earthly life and at times it appears that the evils of sin, death, and the devil still rule and reign in the hearts of many, for us who are gathered into Christ, we cling to the hope of life everlasting with our Lord and all who have gone before us. “World without end” indeed.

As we celebrate and reflect this Christmas Season and into the Season of Epiphany, we welcome in the New Year, praying that God blesses the work He established for us, that He keeps and sustains us, and that He continues to give us His grace and forgiveness found only in Christ Jesus, our Lord.

~Deaconess Holly

Eternal God, we commit to Your mercy and forgiveness the year now ending and commend to Your blessing and love the times yet to come. In the new year, abide among us with Your Holy Spirit that we may always trust in the saving name of our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

~Collect for New Year’s Eve

A New Year

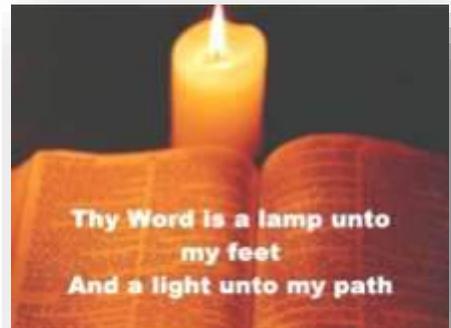

By Bob Massa, Head Elder

As we begin 2022, if you are like me you don't want to hear about or read about Covid or the Pandemic in the new year. However, the reality is we will be inundated with stories about it. What I am looking forward to is continuing to study His Word and scripture. At Eternal Shepherd adults have opportunities and ways to easily accomplish this study.

Everyone can participate in Pastor's Sunday School class either by attending in person between our early and late services or watching from home, and you can watch the recording at a later more convenient time. Our ladies meet every Thursday afternoon to study and reflect on select topics, currently studying the book of Hebrews. The men meet every Monday morning via Zoom to also study select topics. There is a small men's group that also meets on Thursday at church. Information is available on all three in Sunday's printed church announcements.

Personally, daily I use two items to guide my study of the word. The first is "Portals of Prayer" that is published quarterly and has a daily devotional following two short scripture readings: a psalm and then a reading from another book of the Bible. It is a good resource which contains Luther's Morning and Evening Prayers, prayers for each day's morning and evening, and usually prayers for special church days of that quarter. The second option, I prefer because at the end of its devotional it has two readings like Portals one from the Old Testament and one from the New Testament. If you read it each day by the end of the year you will have read the entire Bible. It is from Lutheran Hour Ministries and the devotional will be emailed to you daily. For example, you will receive Tuesday's reading Monday afternoon. To sign up, go to www.lhm.org and at the site click on the tab "Media", scroll down to Daily Devotional, and click on it to get started. The daily devotionals are very practical and helpful for living in our sinful world. The reading is followed by three questions which bring into perspective how it applies to your life as a Christian. The readings are scheduled to guide you easily through the Old Testament to understand the judges/kings, the exile, the post-exile, and the prophets from these periods.

Finally, monthly "The Lutheran Witness", bolsters and supports our theology and our walk-through everyday life as believers in an ever-increasing non-Christian world. Pandemic issues aside, I look forward to beginning again the journey through the Bible. Each year and each reading reveal new insights I hadn't previously seen. Won't you join me? As one of my Christian brothers says, "I dare ya, na I double dare ya"!

Comfort Dog News

Thank you to all who supported our “Howl-Le-Lu-Ya” Dog Biscuit Sale this year! We raised close to $1000 and 20% of that will be donated to Holy Cross Lutheran Church in Miami, FL to support members who are struggling financially due to Covid. Many Holy Cross members are of Haitian descent who are barely making ends meet. Our small contribution will not solve the problems they face but hopefully they will know that we care. Holy Cross was the host church for the Surfside deployment in July and our team were a witness to the struggles many of these family’s face.

We also want to thank Thrivent Financial for granting us a $250 action team gift card which helped purchase the ingredients for the dog biscuits. The leftover funds will buy 6 bags of dog food for the Oconee Humane Society.

We were saddened to learn of the passing of Jewel Comfort Dog in Loudon, TN recently. She served her community and beyond, (deploying several times) for over 7 years and she will be missed. Jewel and her team have a few connections with Eternal Shepherd. Ginger Barthel was on Jewel’s Team as a handler and backup caregiver, before moving to our area. Jewel’s Top Dog, Steve is the brother of ESLC member Susan Tyner. Susan and Mark Roeder on Jewel’s team are the parents of Pete and Jessica Roeder who were members of ESLC but have since moved away. According to many who had the honor to know Jewel, she was a very special dog and knew how to connect with people. The picture below shows Jewel and a young woman after the Pulse Night Club shooting in Orlando, FL. The picture captures Jewel’s ability to connect and comfort those who are hurting.

Please pray for the Comfort Dog Team in the coming year. We want to go where God wants us to go and be available when He calls. Of course, this ministry is a team endeavor, and I would like to take this opportunity to thank Seth’s handlers, his ministry partners, and support members for their faithful service. And many thanks to our wonderful ESLC congregation who always welcomes Seth and all of us with love and encouragement!

Happy New Year and may God bless you with His peace, love, and comfort in the coming year.

To God be the Glory,
Kyra Carbone, Top Dog

Eternal Shepherd Missions in 2021

If you thought the Eternal Shepherd Missions efforts in 2021 had been stopped by the COVID pandemic, you were wrong! Our efforts may have been modified, but our activities remained strong. You, the members of Eternal Shepherd continued to provide amazing support for our mission efforts. The congregation approved Mission budget for 2021 was $12,000. But you “missionaries” individually contributed an additional $32,000. This gave us almost $45,000 to continue our mission work. We didn’t “bury” these funds for a better day. We invested these “talents” into God’s mission field!

The investment mix was different, but the investment didn’t stop. Before the pandemic, about 2/3^{rds} of our mission funds were used to support our “on-the-ground” mission efforts and 1/3rd of the funds were sent directly to our mission partners. In 2021, less than 20% of our funds were used for our Eternal Shepherd teams with the bulk of the funds used to directly support our mission partners.

We didn’t send teams of people to Alaska, Honduras, or Haiti in 2021, but plenty of “hands-on” mission work still happened. Our “Disaster Response” teams made 5 trips during the year to work in hurricane/tornado damaged areas in the Southeastern US. Our “Toys for God’s Kids” team produced over 2,000 small wooden toy cars for shipment to kids around the world. And the “Quilt” mission continued to sew and distribute quilts.

We stopped our in-person mission work overseas because we couldn’t travel. But we continued to financially support the local mission efforts in Haiti, Honduras, and Uganda. This will ensure that the foreign mission will go on without our hands-on work and will be ready for our teams when they return in the future.

Because of COVID limitations, we didn’t send a team to Honduras this year, but we provided over $13,000 in direct financial support to the local on-the-ground missionaries as they continue their mission work and “keep the fires burning” for our return.

God continues to bless our mission “investment” in Haiti Lutheran schools. Our $20,000+ of support provided meals for the children and salaries for the teachers. The number of children served has expanded dramatically.

We pray that the mission flame will continue to burn brightly at Eternal Shepherd and in the coming years our team will once again be able to travel out into the field to share God’s Good News.

ELSC Shoeboxes travel to Benin and Ukraine

While we don't yet know where ALL of our 300 shoeboxes went, we do know that some of them have gone to the countries of Benin and Ukraine.

Benin:

Located in West Africa, Benin ranks high among the continent's cotton producers, but still remains one of the world's poorest countries. Samaritan's Purse began distributing Operation Christmas Child shoebox gifts there in 1999. Since 2010, many of the Benin's children have also participated in The Greatest Journey, the follow-up discipleship course for shoebox recipients.

Tchakatou lives in Benin. He grew up in a home that followed a pagan religion. When he received an Operation Christmas Child shoebox gift in his village, he was so impressed by this expression of God's love to him that he decided to also enroll in The Greatest Journey discipleship program. There he learned about how to follow Christ and share Him with others. After Lesson 11, he went home and destroyed one of his family's fetishes, which is an object believed to have supernatural power. As a result of God's work in his heart through this course, Tchakatou gave his life to Jesus Christ and today he continues to attend church.

The Roma People of Ukraine:

In Ukraine, it's sad but true that many see the Roma people as palm-reading thieves. Because of prejudice and discrimination, they are pushed to the margins of society.

"We have no jobs. It is difficult to survive," said Evgeniy Varode, an assistant to the deputy of the Roma community of Ruski-Komarivtsi.

Education in their communities is substandard—if parents even send their children to school at all. As a result, many children do not know how to read and write. Impoverished and living on the outskirts of towns and villages, many Roma can identify with Jesus Christ, who was "despised and rejected by men" (Isaiah 53:3).

"Some of these kids, they do not know what is a doll, what is a car, what is a toy, gift, or present," Evgeniy said. "My heart is full of joy that we can help such children, and to see such happiness on their faces. The Bible tells us, 'My ways are not your ways' (Isaiah 55:8). We couldn't even imagine this, but this is God's plan."

Daniel, 13, enjoyed the tennis balls and the case filled with pencils he received in his shoebox. His favorite part of the Bible is John 3:16 because, in his words, "God gave his only Son so we could believe in Him."

Jasmine, 9, celebrated receiving a doll, notebook, ball, and especially a jump rope in her shoebox gift.

Pavel and Evgeniy are grateful to be able to serve the Roma community and their children by offering Operation Christmas Child and The Greatest Journey. Together, they are bringing hope to a new generation. "Thank you to Samaritan's Purse and to people who give their money to send shoeboxes to children in Ukraine," Pavel said. "It's not just a toy—it's a Roma and Ukrainian child that is changed."

More updates to follow. In the meantime, let me thank you for participating in this ministry and changing the lives of so many children around the world by introducing them to the Gospel!
~ Terri Baumann, Operation Christmas Child Leader

DISASTER RESPONSE: We have been monitoring the tornado damage situation in Kentucky and environs. We thought that it would be a good idea to send quilts to them but they can't use very many right now, Dec 20. We will follow up on this later. Right now the best way to help is to send money or gift cards to the Mid South district office @ 1675 Wynne Road, Cordova, TN 38016. Please designate your gift "restricted" for the Disaster Relief Fund.

DISASTER RELIEF

Help those in need

Our Lutheran Schools in Haiti Continue to Grow

They grow in student enrollments and in the Word. Pictured is Pastor Samuel handing out 50 Bibles to the students at Pas Bonbon in the fall of 2018. Since then, we added the Rocky Road School, and the total enrollment for both schools totals 428. In January 2022 we will be ordering Bibles and Luther's Small Catechism in both French and Creole. The cost for the pair of books is $15.00.

With the funds we have available we will be ordering 100 sets of books. Our goal is to have both Bibles and Catechisms in the hands of every student. That will take time, but it is a gift they will keep and use daily.

It is common for the children to tell their parents and siblings what they learned in school when they get home. They are actually teaching their families. When a family member asks, "what does that mean" they have Luther's explanation in their own language. In addition to school supplies such as these books, Eternal Shepherd is also providing the lunch through Trinity HOPE at a cost of twenty-seven cents per serving. The lunch was designed at Duke University to provide the most nutrition to a child in a single serving. Many of these children only eat once a day. Eternal Shepherd also supports the Staff of Pas Bonbon. Most staff members earn about $100.00 per month. We are blessed to be a blessing.

Little Lambs Tales

“Those who hope in the Lord will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles; they will run and not grow weary, they will walk and not be faint.” (Isaiah 40:30)

As we ring in the New Year at Little Lambs Preschool, we are reminded of God’s promises of hope and renewal. After several weeks of rest and relaxation, the teachers and staff are ready to enter into the new year of 2022!

We will be focusing our attention this month of January on the season of Winter! You will see a lot of crafts, songs, and stories that revolve around snowmen, ice castles, animals that hibernate in the winter and anything related to snow!

Students come back to school on January 4th and on January 18th we will be out of school for MLK day.

As the month of January concludes we will look forward to ushering in the month of February and the theme of love for God and one another.

We are renewed and refreshed in the presence of these beautiful children of God and feel God’s continual blessings at work!

Thank you for your constant support and prayers for this most important ministry of Eternal Shepherd Lutheran Church. All of us at Little Lambs Preschool are grateful for the opportunity to serve in this important ministry!

*Blessings to you and your families,
~Gina*

LIGHT SWITCH COVER

Everyone who believes in God and lives for him is a child of light. Make this cover for your bedroom light switch to remind you to be a light for God.

What you need:

- An adult to help
- Light switch cover
- Screwdriver
- Colored paper
- Markers
- Scissors
- Decoupage glue
- Paintbrush
- Craft knife

What you do:

1. Remove the screws from the cover.
2. On the paper, draw small images related to light and write out "Live as children of light" (Ephesians 5:8, NIV).
3. Cut out the drawings and verse. Make sure they'll fit on the cover.
4. Paint the cover with a coat of decoupage glue, and then immediately place the drawings and verse on the cover.
5. Paint over them with another coat of glue. Let it dry.
6. Turn the cover over and use a craft knife to cut out the opening for the light switch.
7. Using a screwdriver, place your new light switch cover on your wall.

From darkness to light

In the Bible, God speaks often about light and darkness. He gives us much instruction about which path we should choose.

- | | |
|-----------|---------------|
| 1. Good | Righteousness |
| 2. Death | Children |
| 3. Go | Life |
| 4. Evil | Come |
| 5. Adults | Bad |

Match the opposites and then write the word in the right-hand column in the correct blanks to finish each verse.

"When your eyes are good, your whole body also is full of light. But when they are _____, your body also is full of darkness." Luke 11:34, NIV

"I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will never walk in darkness, but will have the light of _____." John 8:12, NIV
(2)

"I have _____ into the world as a light, so that no one who believes in me should stay in darkness." John 12:46, NIV
(4)

"For what do _____ and wickedness have in common? Or what fellowship can light have with darkness?" 2 Corinthians 6:14, NIV

"For you were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Live as _____ of light." Ephesians 5:8, NIV
(5)
